

Dear Friends,

Many of you know that I love golf, but more importantly, I love life. I am amazed by the number of lives impacted through the ministry of Positive Options on a daily basis.

On September 17th, I am going to take on a golf marathon – 100 holes in one day – in an effort to support the life-giving work they do. This year Positive Options is celebrating the 20th anniversary of their Golf Marathon. How Exciting! Would you help me love people to life one tee-shot at a time? I am excited about this ministry, and I invite you to join me by sponsoring me with a one-time gift, or a dollar, two or three... for every hole I finish. My goal is 100 holes!

I also wanted to introduce you to Cassidy, a former Positive Options' client. When Cassidy and Tim first came to Positive Options, they were facing some pretty hard life stuff. They came in for a pregnancy test and an ultrasound. However, they stayed for the support found in the Bright Course education program for pregnancy, delivery, and parenting. It was amazing that though they were young, they had such a profound sense of loyalty to each other. A blended family, with a new baby on the way, they worked their way through family struggles, challenges in parenting, employment issues and health problems. Tim would often say – "We'll get through this." And he was right! It wasn't easy, but they learned how to overcome, one challenge at a time, - together. They connected with their mentors and formed bonds of friendship with the whole team. They often told us that the support of their mentors and our staff were a crucial part of their journey. Today, we celebrate Cassidy and Tim's journey and the way they have overcome many obstacles with God's help. They are now married with three children and continue to be great friends to the ministry. Cassidy helps with Positive Options events. She is now a passionate supporter of the work that helped her become the wife and mother she wanted to be.

I hope that by now, you are as excited as I am about this ministry and this opportunity to support them. I challenge you to be a hero for every mom, dad, and baby impacted by Positive Options. Let's join every heroic mom and dad who choose life, the heroic students who choose purity, and the heroic team who chooses to love like Christ.

Complete the card below and return it to me, or send it directly to Positive Options. You can also donate online directly to my fundraising page: givebutter.com/2021golfmarathon.
