SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

There are few things in life that compare to the experiences we call "firsts." The first time you sleep in a tent. The first time overlooking the ocean. A first love. Firsts mark our lives profoundly. Each one is a glimpse of the mystical aspect of life - this gift from God. It is a wonderland to explore and enjoy. Yet, somehow humanity has lost sight of the gift, and the precious is clouded by the common. Contrary to common thought, the choice is God's, not ours. It's not about the mother's life alone but instead involves three people: mother, father, and child - each one destined for a lifetime of firsts.

As we soberly consider the past year, with the overturn of Roe vs. Wade and Proposal Three, we have a vitally important decision before us: How do we stand and move forward? It's helpful to draw wisdom from those who have gone before us. History and the scriptures point us to the radiant lives of heroes and saints, like Esther, who stood in the middle of chaos, moved by God's leading for His glory. Ours is a season that demands prayer, quiet resolve, and wisdom from God. (Esther 4:16)

God will grant you wisdom and compassion to bring healing to our land. May you be filled with purpose, endowed with vision, fueled by His compassion to speak life and peace over this generation. Our Father intentionally placed you in this region - in this era. His Gospel on your lips will save the lost and rescue the perishing.

Friends, we have been created for such a time as this!
